

The Acts of Ascension

Through My Window

By: Pastor
Jim Sprengle

Grace and peace to you from God our Father and the Lord Jesus Christ!

“That which we have seen and heard we proclaim also to you, so that you too may have fellowship with us; and indeed our fellowship is with the Father and with His Son Jesus Christ. But if we walk in the light, as He is in the light, we have fellowship with one another, and the blood of Jesus His Son cleanses us from all sin.” (1 John 1:3, 7 ESV).

In January, I introduced three areas that we will emphasize this coming year: growing deeper in the Word of God, fellowship, and outreach. Last month, I asked how your Bible study is going. This month, I wonder: how is your fellowship going? We humans are social by nature, and God created us with a need for connection. Even more than that, God created us for a relationship and fellowship with Him.

The Gospel writer John also wrote several letters, including 1 John. He begins this letter by emphasizing the importance of fellowship. The Greek word for fellowship is koinonia (coin-oh-KNEE-ah). One Greek lexicon defines it as “close association involving mutual interests and sharing; association, communion, fellowship, close relationship.” (BDAG, U of Chicago Press, 2000)

Consider how John presents the idea of koinonia. First, he and the other apostles saw and heard Jesus in the flesh. They passed on this Good News of salvation to others, “so that you too may have fellowship with us.” Not only that, but fellowship with the apostles means fellowship with the Father and the Son. Now, as we continue to live for Jesus in faith, “we have fellowship with one another, and the blood of Jesus His Son cleanses us from all sin.”

Long ago, the apostles passed on the Gospel to others, and down the line, it came to you and all who believe. The Bible tells us that faith in Jesus Christ is fellowship with other believers—communion, sharing, a close relationship. In what ways does Ascension foster this koinonia? Is worship the sole place where you connect with other Christians? What steps can you take to build fellowship with other believers?

Church is more than a place of worship; it is a place of fellowship and life that God gives us as a gift. Yes, the people who sit next to you in the pews are a gift from God, just as you are a gift from God to them. As we experience life together, our fellowship is a source of support and strength amid constant trials and temptations. Let’s go through this life together—in koinonia—because God created us with this in mind.

In fellowship with you,

Pr Jim

¡Gracia y paz a vosotros de parte de Dios nuestro Padre y del Señor Jesucristo!

“Les anunciamos lo que hemos visto y oído, para que también ustedes tengan comunión con nosotros. Y nuestra comunión es con el Padre y con su Hijo Jesucristo. Pero si vivimos en la luz, así como él está en la luz, tenemos comunión unos con otros, y la sangre de su Hijo Jesucristo nos limpia de todo pecado.” (1 Juan 1:3, 7 NVI).

En enero, presenté tres áreas en las que haremos hincapié el próximo año: profundizar en la Palabra de Dios, la comunión y la evangelización. El mes pasado, le pregunté cómo va su estudio bíblico. Este mes, me pregunto: ¿cómo va tu beca? Los seres humanos somos sociales por naturaleza, y Dios nos creó con la necesidad de conexión. Incluso más que eso, Dios nos creó para una relación y comunión con Él.

El escritor del Evangelio Juan también escribió varias cartas, incluyendo 1 Juan. Comienza esta carta enfatizando la importancia de la comunión. La palabra griega para compañerismo es koinonía (coin-oh-KNEE-ah). Un léxico griego lo define como “asociación estrecha que involucra intereses mutuos y el intercambio; asociación, comunión, compañerismo, relación estrecha”. (BDAG, U of Chicago Press, 2000)

Considere cómo Juan presenta la idea de la koinonía. Primero, él y los otros apóstoles vieron y escucharon a Jesús en la carne. Transmitieron esta Buena Nueva de salvación a otros, “para que también vosotros tengáis comunión con nosotros”. No solo eso, sino que la comunión con los apóstoles significa comunión con el Padre y el Hijo. Ahora, a medida que continuamos viviendo para Jesús en fe, “tenemos comunión los unos con los otros, y la sangre de Jesús su Hijo nos limpia de todo pecado”.

Hace mucho tiempo, los apóstoles transmitieron el Evangelio a otros, y más adelante, llegó a ti y a todos los que creen. (Continúa a la página 4)

THROUGH MY WINDOW

(Viene de la página 1)

La Biblia nos dice que la fe en Jesucristo es comunión con otros creyentes, comunión, compartir, una relación cercana. ¿De qué manera Ascensión fomenta esta koinonía? ¿Es la adoración el único lugar donde te conectas con otros cristianos? ¿Qué pasos puedes dar para edificar la comunión con otros creyentes?

La iglesia es más que un lugar de culto, es un lugar de comunión y de vida que Dios nos regala. Sí, las personas que se sientan a tu lado en los bancos son un regalo de Dios, así como tú eres un regalo de Dios para ellos. A medida que experimentamos la vida juntos, nuestra comunión es una fuente de apoyo y fortaleza en medio de constantes pruebas y tentaciones. Vamos a pasar por esta vida juntos, en koinonía, porque Dios nos creó con esto en mente.

En comunión contigo,

Pr Jim

YOUTH AND FAMILY

FEBRUARY YOUTH and FAMILY NIGHT NEWS

Friendship Friday with Food

The Youth and Family Ministry got together on Friday, Feb. 21 for a night of fellowship, singing, eating, and playing games!

The night began with music as we sang hymns, some old and some new. Afterwards we moved the focus to a devotion about how God works in our lives no matter the circumstances. Next, we prayed for the food that was graciously prepared for us by those in the youth and family ministry and we got to eat! Thank you to everyone who brought food; it was very delicious and much appreciated by all who attended. As the night ended, we expended some of our energy by playing games.

The February Youth and Family Night was a blast for everyone who attended. It was a pleasant night to spend with friends around delicious food that was enjoyed by all. Thank you to everyone who attended; you made this event memorable.

LWML = Lutheran Women In Mission

We have a few calendar items coming up and some additional information about LWML that you may want to read about and consider.

The Lutheran Women's Missionary League (LWML) is an official auxiliary of The Lutheran Church—Missouri Synod. Since 1942, the LWML has focused on affirming each woman's relationship with Christ, encouraging and equipping women to live out their Christian lives in active mission ministries and to support global missions.

Are you familiar with the Structure of LWML (The Lutheran Women's Missionary League)?

- ♥ National = The LWML is an official auxiliary of The Lutheran Church—Missouri Synod (LCMS).
- ♥ Districts = usually conform to LCMS district boundaries — link individual members, local groups, and zones to the LWML.
- ♥ Zone = is a group of local LWML groups and individual members in the same geographic area united to promote the object of the LWML. Ascension is included in the Mt. Hood Zone)
- ♥ Local groups and individual members = are the foundation upon which the LWML is built.

Objectives – Mission: Education, Inspiration, and Service; Financial Grants for Mission Needs.

Motto - Serve the LORD with gladness! (Psalm 100:2).

41st Biennial Convention
Omaha, Nebraska

Mite Explanation and History

Based on the Biblical account of the widow's mite (Luke 21:1–4), the Mite Box is intended for regular contributions of "mites" — offerings above and beyond the support given to congregations and the LCMS. Mite Box contributions amount to millions of dollars that fund district and national mission grants and implement the LWML program.
